++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Frosty for many overnight. Becoming cloudier and damp into Wednesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Cold and crisp into the evening, with a frost developing widely, except for perhaps the cloudier far west. Cloud here later spreading eastwards into the second half of the night, with patchy rain and drizzle for many areas by dawn. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Wednesday:
Far eastern parts perhaps starting cold and fine, ahead of a band of rain and drizzle spreading from western parts. Gradually becoming milder in its wake later, but remaining cloudy. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Thursday cloudy and damp, becoming colder again to perhaps give some sleet later. Friday drier but cold, with a risk of freezing fog. Further rain and perhaps some sleet Saturday.
